SB 496	Cannella, De León	Indemnity: design professionals	This bill (1) provides that a design professional, as defined, shall only have the duty to defend an indemnitee for claims against the indemnitee that arise out of, pertain to, or relate to, the negligence, recklessness, or willful misconduct of the design professional, as specified; (2) states that all provisions, clauses, covenants, and agreements contained in, collateral to, or affecting any contract for design professional services that purport to require a design professional to indemnify or defend claims against an indemnitee except as specified above shall be unenforceable; (3) specifies that a design professional's cost to defend an indemnitee shall not exceed the design professional's proportionate percentage of fault, but that in the event one or more defendants is unable to pay its share of defense costs, the design professional shall meet and confer with the other parties regarding unpaid defense costs, as specified; (4) specifies that the above provisions shall not pertain to contracts where a project-specific general liability policy insures all project participants or to written design-build joint venture agreements; and (5) specifies that as used therein "indemnitee" does not include any agency of the State of California.	Chapter 8, Statutes of 2017
SB 543	Morrell	Civil actions: service of documents	This bill expands the option of personal service in the civil litigation context, including for the service of applications for determination of good faith settlements, discovery, and the exchange of expert witness information.	Chapter 64, Statutes of 2017
SB 597	Leyva	Human trafficking: victim confidentiality	This bill makes the address confidentiality program administered by the Secretary of State, known as the Safe at Home program, available to victims of human trafficking, and makes additional conforming changes; and expands the program to include household members of victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and human trafficking, as specified.	Chapter 570, Statutes of 2017
SB 658	Wiener	Jury selection	This bill removes some discretion from trial judges in conducting voir dire in civil cases; and restructures the provisions governing such voir dire and provides certain factors that a court must consider in exercising its discretion.	Chapter 337, Statutes of 2017
SB 690	Jackson	State Bar of California: disclosures	This bill allows the State Bar of California to disclose information it is currently prohibited from disclosing and that law schools need in order to comply with regulatory and accreditation requirements; remedies unintended consequences that resulted from subjecting records of the State Bar to the California Public Records Act; and provides that any information received from an educational or testing entity that is collected by the State Bar for the purpose of conducting the Law School Bar Exam Performance Study shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed pursuant to any state law, except that aggregate, summary, or statistical data that does not identify any person and does not provide substantial risk of identification of any person may be disclosed, as specified.	Chapter 433, Statutes of 2017

SB 755	Beall	Civil discovery: mental examination	This bill limits a mental examination of a child, in any civil action where there is credible evidence that the child has been sexually abused, to psychological testing of no more than three hours, including any breaks and only allows the examination to extend beyond three hours if the court decides to grant an extension for good cause; and requires the examiner to have expertise in child abuse and trauma.	Chapter 133, Statutes of 2017
AB 31	Rodriguez	Whistleblowers: California State Auditor	This bill instructs the State Auditor's Office (SAO) to create a system for the submission of allegations of improper government activities against the SAO; and provides that such allegations would be routed to an independent investigator appointed by the Employment and Administrative Mandate Section of the Department of Justice and the independent investigator would then conduct an investigation into the allegation and, if warranted, issue a report and recommend corrective action.	Chapter 605, Statutes of 2017
AB 218	Bonta	Local agencies: airports: customer facility charges	This bill removes the provision that provides that authorization to impose customer facility charges (CFC) becomes inoperative when the bonds used for financing are paid; removes a provision granting Oakland International Airport the ability to impose a CFC without any form of indebtedness or after such a form is paid; reverts, on January 1, 2023, the relevant statutes back to current law; and provides that a per-contract CFC, or "traditional CFC," shall not exceed $10 and that an airport shall not require a rental company to collect more than one CFC for a single rental (these latter changes are permanent).	Chapter 311, Statutes of 2017
AB 260	Santiago	Human trafficking	This bill includes hotels, motels, and bed and breakfast inns, not including personal residences, on the list of establishments that must post notices containing resources for potential victims of human trafficking and slavery.	Chapter 547, Statutes of 2017
AB 291	Chiu, Bonta, Gonzalez Fletcher, Kalra	Housing: immigration	This bill provides a set of legal protections for tenants against unscrupulous landlords who might otherwise try to use immigration status as a way of intimidating tenants who have exercised, or who are about to exercise, their housing rights.	Chapter 489, Statutes of 2017
AB 294	Gipson	Mobilehome parks: disclosure	This bill adds a deadline to the existing requirement that the management of a mobilehome park must disclose the name, business address, and business telephone number of the park owner upon request from a mobilehome owner; and mandates park management to provide the required information within 10 business days of receiving a written request for it.	Chapter 31, Statutes of 2017
AB 299	Calderon	Hiring of real property: immigration or citizenship status	This bill forbids all public entities, including state agencies and California State Universities, from using policies, ordinances, or administrative actions to compel landlords to inquire about or disclose the immigration status of current or prospective tenants.	Chapter 490, Statutes of 2017

AB 307	Maienschein	Allocation of principal or income	This bill provides revised directions for how a trustee is required to allocate money to beneficiaries of an estate or trust as either principal or income; and provides that the directions include, among others, how a trustee is to determine that a distribution is a return of capital that is allocated as principal.	Chapter 577, Statutes of 2017
AB 308	Maienschein	Procedures for litigation	This bill expands the notice provided to interested individuals in probate actions, specifically requiring the notice to include a description of the subject property and a description of the relief sought; and clarifies the application of the Code of Civil Procedure's discovery rules to the Probate Code, by adding to the Probate Code when a petitioner may commence discovery. This bill does not expand whom discovery may be obtained from or allow discovery to commence any earlier.	Chapter 32, Statutes of 2017
AB 309	Maienschein	Testamentary additions to trusts	This bill provides that a written instrument executed within 60 days after the execution of the testator's will may be used to devise the testator's property as long as the trust is identified in the testator's will and its terms are set forth in the written instrument.	Chapter 33, Statutes of 2017
AB 314	Mullin	Dating service contracts: online services	This bill amends the provisions of law applying to online dating services contracts; and amends or exempts such online dating service providers from various existing requirements.	Chapter 578, Statutes of 2017
AB 360	Muratsuchi	The State Bar: pro bono legal assistance: veterans	This bill requires the State Bar to administer a program to coordinate pro bono civil legal assistance to veterans and their families who otherwise cannot afford legal services.	Chapter 401, Statutes of 2017
AB 369	Waldron	Appeals: child custody orders or judgments	This bill adds a final order or judgment in a bifurcated proceeding regarding child custody or visitation rights to be added to the list of judicial actions that may be appealed.	Chapter 41, Statutes of 2017
AB 383	Chau	Civil actions: discovery status conference	This bill gives courts discretion to hold informal discovery conferences upon request of a party or on their own motion to discuss disputed discovery issues; provides the procedures and timelines for such conferences; and provides that the outcome of such a discovery conference does not preclude the filing of any discovery motion or prejudice the disposition of such a motion.	Chapter 189, Statutes of 2017
AB 430	Irwin, Low	Marriage: solemnization	This bill authorizes, to the extent not prohibited by law and provided that the compensation is reasonable, specified officials, including retired judges and retired commissioners, to accept compensation for solemnizing a marriage.	Chapter 42, Statutes of 2017
AB 452	Bloom	Courts	This bill changes references to Clerk of the Supreme Court to Clerk/Executive Officer of the Supreme Court, and changes references to Clerk/Administrator of the Court of Appeal to Clerk/Executive Officer of the Court of Appeal; and provides that state law references to the Administrative Office of the Courts means the Judicial Council.	Chapter 36, Statutes of 2017

AB 459	Chau	Public records: video or audio recordings: crime	This bill provides that public agencies are not required to disclose video or audio created during the commission or investigation of the crimes of rape, incest, sexual assault, domestic violence, or child abuse that depicts the face, intimate body part, or voice of a victim of the incident depicted in the recording; requires the agency to justify withholding such a video or audio recording by demonstrating that the public interest served by not disclosing the recording clearly outweighs the public interest served by disclosure of the recording; provides factors for the agency to consider in making such a determination; and requires public agencies to permit a victim of a crime depicted in such videos to inspect the recording and obtain a copy.	Chapter 291, Statutes of 2017
AB 492	Grayson	Advertising and solicitations: government documents	This bill provides that, notwithstanding any other law, a nongovernmental entity may solicit a fee for providing a copy of a public record only if that solicitation contains certain disclosures; and applies only to direct solicitation of an individually identified person, residence, or business location.	Chapter 293, Statutes of 2017
AB 534	Gallagher	Common interest developments: mechanics liens	This bill makes three modifications to the law so as to clarify and facilitate the operation of mechanic's liens in the context of work performed on the common areas of a common interest development (CID): (1) imputes to all owners a CID association's authorization to perform work on a common area, (2) allows the claimant on a mechanic's lien to notify the association instead of every individual owner, and (3) clarifies that an individual property owner within a CID can remove a mechanic's lien that applies to multiple units within a CID by obtaining and recording a lien release bond for that owner's pro rata share of the overall claim.	Chapter 44, Statutes of 2017
AB 552	Irwin	United Water Conservation District	This bill authorizes the United Water Conservation District to seek a variety of additional remedies against water-producing facilities that are delinquent in payment of groundwater charges or otherwise in non-compliance.	Chapter 294, Statutes of 2017
AB 644	Berman	Civil procedure: pleadings	This bill requires a party that intends to file a motion to strike or a motion for judgment on the pleadings to first meet and confer with the party who filed the relevant pleading in person or by phone, according to specified timelines and procedures; allows courts to order conferences of the parties after successful motions to strike or motions for judgment on the pleadings, if amended pleadings or subsequent motions in response to those pleadings are filed; places certain limitations on amended pleadings or subsequent motions; and includes a sunset date of January 1, 2021.	Chapter 273, Statutes of 2017

AB 646	Kalra	Rental property: disclosures: flood hazard areas: areas of potential flooding	This bill requires all leases or rental agreements to contain a notice that the property is located in a special flood hazard area or an area of potential flooding, if the landlord has actual knowledge, as defined, that the rental property is so located; and requires all leases and rental agreements to inform tenants about the availability of hazard information from the Department of Emergency Services and to advise tenants to consider obtaining flood and renters' insurance, since the landlord's insurance will not cover the tenant's personal property in the event it is lost at the result of a natural hazard.	Chapter 502, Statutes of 2017
AB 688	Calderon	Enforcement of money judgments: exemptions	This bill exempts those moneys in, contributions to, and distributions from, an Achieving a Better Life Experience Act account from enforcement of money judgments.	Chapter 529, Statutes of 2017
AB 699	O'Donnell, Chiu, Kalra	Educational equity: immigration and citizenship status	This bill emphasizes that discrimination based on immigration status is prohibited within California's K-12 public schools and requires schools to take additional affirmative steps to eliminate such discrimination; and directs the Attorney General to publish, and schools to adopt, policies for limiting assistance with immigration enforcement at public schools to the minimum consistent with federal and state law.	Chapter 493, Statutes of 2017
AB 712	Bloom	Civil actions: change of venue	This bill enables a court transferring jurisdiction of a family law action to retain jurisdiction to make orders designed to prevent immediate danger or irreparable harm to a party or to the children involved in the matter, or to prevent the immediate loss or damage to property subject to disposition in the matter, if transfer to another court's jurisdiction has not yet been perfected.	Chapter 316, Statutes of 2017
AB 740	Reyes	Oaths and affirmations	This bill reorganizes the existing statutory provisions regarding the certification of former judges and justices to administer oaths and affirmations; removes the requirement that all applications include a medical certification, but authorizes the Commission on Judicial Performance to require one under certain circumstances; and removes the five-year cap on certifications, making certifications valid indefinitely, except as specified.	Chapter 82, Statutes of 2017
AB 772	Daly	Unclaimed property: publication of notice	This bill authorizes the State Controller to cause notice, regarding disposition of unclaimed property, to be published in a manner the Controller determines to be reasonable, rather than require notice to be published in a newspaper of general circulation; and prohibits the Controller from using (1) money appropriated for the Controller's audit programs, (2) more than the amount appropriated by the Legislature for publishing notice, (3) a photograph, or (4) an elected official's name while causing notice to be published.	Chapter 200, Statutes of 2017
AB 828	Obernolte	Civil actions: fee recovery	This bill provides that electronic presentations of exhibits, including costs of rental equipment and electronic formatting, may be allowed as allowable costs if they were reasonably helpful to aid the trier of fact.	Chapter 583, Statutes of 2017

AB 859	Eggman	Elders and dependent adults: abuse or neglect	This bill applies a preponderance of the evidence standard to any claim brought against a residential care facility for the elderly or a skilled nursing facility, except when operated by an acute care hospital as specified, for remedies sought pursuant to the Elder Abuse and Dependent Adult Civil Protection Act, upon circumstances in which spoliation of evidence has been committed by the defendant, as specified.	Vetoed
AB 905	Maienschein	Money judgments of other jurisdictions	This bill implements changes to the Tribal Court Civil Money Judgment Act and the Uniform Foreign Country Money Judgment Act recommended in a recent California Law Revision Commission Report mandated by the Legislature; and makes other changes to the discretionary grounds for nonrecognition of a foreign-country or tribal court's judgment.	Chapter 168, Statutes of 2017
AB 953	Baker	Protective orders: personal information of minors	This bill authorizes a minor or a minor's guardian to petition the court to keep all of a minor's information confidential when issuing a protective order under either the Code of Civil Procedure or the Family Code; provides that the court may grant such a petition if the court expressly finds that, among other things, the minor's right to privacy overcomes the right of public access to the information and no less restrictive means exist to protect the minor's privacy; and permits confidential information to be made available to law enforcement to the extent necessary and only for the purpose of enforcing the order.	Chapter 384, Statutes of 2017
AB 976	Berman	Electronic filing and service	This bill expands the use of permissive and mandatory electronic filing and service in civil courts as well as in criminal, probate, and juvenile courts; and provides clear rules governing the processes, the timing, and the safeguards that must be in place.	Chapter 319, Statutes of 2017
AB 984	Calderon	Courts: frivolous actions or tactics	This bill makes clear that Section 128.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure applies a subjective standard and only applies to cases filed after January 1, 2015; and clearly establishes the standards, conditions, and procedures by which sanctions under Section 128.5 must be imposed.	Chapter 169, Statutes of 2017
AB 1093	Chen	Service of process	This bill provides guidelines for effecting service on a person when the only address reasonably known is a private mailbox obtained through a commercial mail receiving agency.	Chapter 129, Statutes of 2017
AB 1104	Chau	The California Political Cyberfraud Abatement Act	This bill expands the California Political Cyberfraud Abatement Act to cover Web sites purporting to support or oppose candidates for public office.	Chapter 715, Statutes of 2017
AB 1108	Daly	Self-service storage facilities	This bill updates two aspects of the California laws that regulate the self-storage industry to better fit the Internet age: (1) allows self-storage businesses to provide legal notices to customers by email, with the consent of the customer; and (2) clarifies that self-storage companies may use Internet auction sites when conducting public sale of storage unit contents.	Chapter 227, Statutes of 2017

AB 1139	Reyes	Real property: transfer fees: notices	This bill requires anyone seeking payment of a property transfer fee to record notice that the existence of the fee may make it more difficult for the property owner or a prospective buyer to obtain financing unless the transfer fee provides a "direct benefit" to the property in question.	Chapter 148, Statutes of 2017
AB 1148	Steinorth	Commercial property: disclosures: disability access	This bill inserts a definition of "commercial property" for purposes of disability access inspection disclosures, with the effect of limiting the disability access inspection disclosure requirements to properties that are being offered for sale or lease to persons operating, or intending to operate, a public accommodation or a facility to which the general public is invited.	Chapter 87, Statutes of 2017
AB 1159	Chiu	Cannabis: legal services	This bill provides that attorney-client privilege applies to legal services rendered in compliance with state and local laws on medicinal cannabis or adult-use cannabis, and confidential communications provided for the purpose of rendering those services are confidential communications between client and lawyer, provided the lawyer also advises the client on conflicts with respect to federal law; and makes a number of legislative findings and declarations, while also providing that medicinal cannabis or commercial marijuana activity conducted in compliance with California law and any applicable local standards, requirements, and regulations shall be deemed to be all of the following: (1) a lawful object of a contract, (2) not contrary to, an express provision of law, any policy of express law, or good morals, and (3) not against public policy.	Chapter 530, Statutes of 2017
AB 1269	Mark Stone	Mobilehome Residents and Senior Protection Act	This bill establishes a five-year pilot program (ending on January 1, 2023), under the auspices of the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, for the administrative investigation and enforcement of complaints alleging violations of the Mobilehome Residency Law; and provides that the program be funded through a dedicated annual fee of $10 per mobilehome statewide, begin collecting the fee January 1, 2018, and start receiving and investigating complaints no later than July 1, 2020.	Vetoed
AB 1286	Friedman	Airports: alternative customer facility charges	This bill extends the date by which an airport must initiate the process for obtaining the authority to require or increase an alternative customer facility charge for authorized purposes from January 1, 2018, to January 1, 2025; and contains language to avoid chaptering out issues with AB 218 (Bonta, Chapter 311, Statutes of 2017).	Chapter 325, Statutes of 2017
AB 1396	Burke	Surrogacy	This bill deletes a reference to the parental rights of the surrogate and her spouse or partner and instead requires the court to issue the judgment or order regarding parentage forthwith, unless specified conditions are met; and corrects a mistaken cross-reference to existing law.	Chapter 326, Statutes of 2017

AB 1443	Levine	Court records	This bill updates existing laws governing the retention and destruction of court records; provides guidelines for the retention of gun violence restraining orders; and eliminates the requirement that courts provide a listing of all destroyed records to Judicial Council.	Chapter 172, Statutes of 2017
AB 1450	Obernolte	Court reporters: electronic transcripts	This bill requires official reporters or official reporters pro tempore to deliver transcripts in electronic form in compliance with California Rules of Court; and provides a five-year grace period for courts and reporters to modernize their equipment and overall technical abilities.	Chapter 532, Statutes of 2017
AB 1479	Bonta	Public records: custodian of records: civil penalties	This bill requires that public agencies designate a person or office to act as the agency's custodian of records who would be responsible for responding to any request made pursuant to the California Public Records Act and any inquiry from the public about a decision by the agency to deny a request for records; and provides that the designation of a custodian of records does not impose a duty upon a requester to direct the request to a designated custodian, nor does it prevent a person or office that is not the designated custodian from disclosing information pursuant to this chapter.	Vetoed
AB 1516	Cunningham	Maintenance of the codes	This bill makes numerous technical changes in the California codes that have been recommended by the Office of Legislative Counsel.	Chapter 561, Statutes of 2017
AB 1556	Mark Stone	Employment discrimination: unlawful employment practices	This bill replaces, with gender neutral language, all existing references to "female," "he," "she," and other gender-specific terms in the California Fair Employment and Housing Act and the Moore-Brown-Roberti Family Rights Act, thereby achieving more inclusive statutes and clarifying that all Californians are protected against discrimination, including pregnancy discrimination, regardless of their gender identity.	Chapter 799, Statutes of 2017
AB 1615	E.Garcia	Gender discrimination: civil actions	This bill instructs the Department of Consumer Affairs to develop and distribute informational materials describing the rights and obligations of California businesses relating to charging different prices for services based on the gender of the customer being served; and requires anyone bringing a legal claim against a business for gender discriminatory pricing to provide that business with informational materials and a responsive legal pleading form at the outset of the lawsuit.	Chapter 156, Statutes of 2017
AB 1690	Judiciary	Personal rights: compensatory relief	This bill clarifies and codifies that the protections against inquiry into immigration status that now apply to civil actions to enforce the state's labor, employment, civil rights and employee housing laws, also extends to disputes regarding consumer protection and to all housing laws.	Chapter 160, Statutes of 2017
AB 1692	Judiciary	Judiciary omnibus	This bill makes various changes to the Family Code, including allowing courts to convert certain vacant subordinate judicial officer positions to judgeships, and allowing courts, at parents' request, to provide optional, pre-hearing child custody mediation.	Chapter 330, Statutes of 2017

AB 1693	Judiciary	Civil actions: intervention	This bill amends the statute governing interventions to recognize an "answer in intervention" in addition to the existing "complaint in intervention" and makes other clarifying and non-substantive changes to modernize that statute.	Chapter 131, Statutes of 2017
AJR 10	Santiago	Access to Counsel Act	This resolution urges the Congress of the United States to support S. 349, the Access to Counsel Act, to ensure that those persons held or detained while attempting to enter the United States, whether at a border crossing or a port of entry, would be guaranteed access to legal counsel.	Resolution Chapter 143, Statutes of 2017
AJR 14	Ting, Chiu	135th anniversary of the Chinese Exclusion Act	This resolution marks the 135th anniversary of the signing of the Chinese Exclusion Act, describes the racial hostility that gave rise to it, draws parallels to the immigration policies of the present federal administration, and calls upon that administration to revoke the three key Executive Orders which implement that policy, parts of which are currently blocked by federal court orders.	Resolution Chapter 120, Statutes of 2017
AJR 16	Low, Cunningham	Anti-LGBT Actions in the Chechen Republic	This resolution, among other things, urges the President and Congress of the United States to condemn the government-sanctioned persecution, torture, and murder of gay men in the Chechen Republic, and urges the President and Congress to encourage the granting of asylum and refugee status for individuals fleeing persecution, including individuals fleeing persecution due to their actual or perceived sexual orientation or gender identity, as specified.
