ENERGY, UTILITIES & COMMUNICATIONS

AB-33	Quirk	Electrical corporations: energy storage systems: long duration bulk energy storage resources	This bill obligates the California Public Utilities Commission, in consultation with the California Energy Commission, to evaluate and analyze the potential for all types of long-duration bulk energy storage resources to help integrate renewables into the electric grid.	Chapter 680, Statutes of 2016
AB-1110	Ting	Greenhouse gases emissions intensity reporting: retail electricity suppliers	This bill requires every retail supplier of electricity in California annually to report to its customers the greenhouse gases emissions intensity of the supplier's electricity sources.	Chapter 656, Statutes of 2016
AB-1180	C Garcia	Rates and charges for water service: payment transaction fees	This bill allows, until January 1, 2022, specified water corporations to establish pilot programs, once approved by the California Public Utilities Commission, that evaluate customer interest in using credit cards, debit cards and prepaid cards to pay utility bills, without requiring an individual payment transaction fee and allows these utilities to recover the reasonable expenses incurred in providing its customers with these bill payment options.	Chapter 254, Statutes of 2016
AB-1289	Cooper	Transportation network companies: participating drivers: penalties	This bill requires a transportation network company (TNC) to conduct, or have a third party conduct, a local and national criminal background check for each participating driver, that includes multistate and multijurisdiction criminal records locator. This bill prohibits a TNC from retaining a driver who is required by any law to register as a sex offender or has been convicted of specified list of felonies. This bill sets minimum and maximum fines for violating these requirements and exempts consumer report agencies from furnishing TNCs with currently prohibited non-conviction information of applicant drivers.	Chapter 740, Statutes of 2016
AB-1330	Bloom	Energy efficiency	This bill requires the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) to ensure there are sufficient monies available to electrical and gas corporations to meet their efficiency targets, as established by the CPUC.	Chapter 812, Statutes of 2016
AB-1564	Williams	Emergency services: wireless 911 calls: routing	This bill requires the Office of Emergency Services, working with the California Highway Patrol, and county coordinators to review and ensure the most efficient routing of mobile calls to the 911 system.	Chapter 241, Statutes of 2016
AB-1637	Low	Energy: greenhouse gas reduction	This bill expands and extends the fuel-cell net energy metering program and doubles the budget of the self-generation incentive program.	Chapter 658, Statutes of 2016
AB-1651	Obernolte	Public Utilities Commission: contracts	This bill requires the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) to annually publish on its Web site information about each contract the CPUC enters into. It also requires CPUC to publish on its Web site audits of CPUC's contracting practices conducted by the Department of General Services.	Chapter 815, Statutes of 2016

The RES-BCT program allows a local governmental entity to operate a small renewable electricity generating facility in one location and have the utility credit the output of that facility against electricity the local government consumes at another location.
AB-1923	Wood	Bioenergy feed-in tariff	This bill increases, from three megawatts (MW) to five MW, the limit on the nameplate capacity of a bioenergy electric generation facility that may participate in the investor-owned utilities' bioenergy feed-in-tariff programs, so long as the generation facility delivers no more than three MW to the grid at any time.	Chapter 663, Statutes of 2016
AB-1937	Gomez	Electricity: procurement	This bill requires an electric investor-owned utility, when considering bids for gas-fired generation resources to consider, and give preference to, bids for resources that are not gas-fired generation resources located in communities that suffer from cumulative pollution burdens.	Chapter 664, Statutes of 2016
AB-1979	Bigelow	Renewable feed-in tariff: hydroelectric facilities	This bill makes an exception to the feed-in-tariff program three-megawatt limit on the generating capacity of an eligible electric generation facility to newly allow participation by a conduit hydroelectric facility with a nameplate generating capacity of up to four megawatts that meets certain conditions.	Chapter 665, Statutes of 2016
AB-2168	Williams	Public Utilities Commission Audit Compliance Act of 2016	This bill requires the California Public Utilities Commission to periodically review balancing accounts of utilities based on a risk-based approach to ensure transactions are for allowable purposes. This bill also deletes the requirement that the reports of the inspections and audits of utilities be furnished to the State Board of Equalization.	Chapter 805, Statutes of 2016
AB-2313	Williams	Renewable natural gas: monetary incentive program for biomethane projects: pipeline infrastructure	This bill 1) increases the monetary incentive amounts available to biomethane projects and 2) directs the California Public Utilities Commission to consider whether to allow recovery in utility rates the costs of utility infrastructure for biomethane interconnection with the natural gas pipeline network.	Chapter 571, Statutes of 2016
AB-2454	Williams	Energy: procurement plans	This bill directs the California Public Utilities Commission to 1) require an investor-owned utility (IOU) to demonstrate that it will first meet its unmet resource needs through all available energy efficiency and demand reduction resources that are cost effective, reliable, and feasible; 2) require an IOU to demonstrate compliance with its approved procurement plan prior to approving the IOU's contract for any new gas-fired generating unit, and 3) consider the findings of the Demand Response Potential Study.	Chapter 826, Statutes of 2016
AB-2746	Obernolte	Public Utilities Commission: contracts: electronic submissions	This bill requires the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) to adopt procedures authorizing the submittal of electronic signatures and documents by all parties on contracts involving the CPUC. SB-1207	Hueso	Energy: conservation: financial assistance	This bill 1) extends by 10 years the sunset on the Energy Conservation Assistance Account program, and 2) authorizes the California Energy Commission to pledge its loan portfolio to secure the bonds issued by the California Infrastructure and Economic Development Bank.	Chapter 675, Statutes of 2016
SB-1212	Hueso	"2-1-1" information and referral network	This bill authorizes the California Public Utilities Commission to expend up to $1.5 million from the California Teleconnect Fund Administrative Committee to help close telephone service gaps in counties lacking access to 2-1-1 referral service, including implementation of a coordinated publicly owned database.	Chapter 841, Statutes of 2016
SB-1222	Hertzberg	Public Utilities Commission: reports: financing orders	This bill makes various changes to the authorities of the California Public Utilities Commission and the reports required to be provided to the Legislature.	Chapter 842, Statutes of 2016
SB-1393	De León	Energy efficiency and pollution reduction	This bill makes clarifying amendments to existing code that was originally added to statute as part of SB 350 (De Leon, Chapter 547, Statutes of 2015). Specifically, this bill 1) clarifies that electricity generated by a municipal solid waste (MSW) facility may qualify for credit under the Renewable Portfolio Standard (RPS) only if it was generated before January 1, 2017, thereby eliminating conflicting and ambiguous language that states electricity generated by an MSW facility may qualify for RPS credit if it was generated pursuant to a contract entered into before January 1, 2017; 2) eliminates language requiring a publicly owned utility (POU) to report to the California Energy Commission information regarding the POU's use of public goods	Chapter 677, Statutes of 2016 funds and procurement plans; 3) conforms two existing RPS exemptions for POUs that own large hydroelectric facilities; 4) clarifies that a POU is to conduct efficiency studies and set targets only every four years; and 5) streamlines reporting requirements and eliminates duplicate reporting requirements.

SB-1414	Wolk	Energy	This bill directs the California Energy Commission (CEC) to approve a plan that will promote the installation of central air conditioning and heat pumps in compliance with Part 6 of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations, and authorizes the CEC to adopt regulations consistent with the approved plan. This bill also prohibits an investor-owned utility from paying out a rebate or incentive for energy efficiency upgrades unless the recipient proves closure of regulatory permitting and compliance with any requirements of the state's building standards for energy efficiency.	Chapter 678, Statutes of 2016
SB-1463	Moorlach	Electrical lines: mitigation of wildfire risks	This bill requires the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC), in consultation with the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, to prioritize areas in which communities are subject to conditions that increase fire hazards associated with overhead utility facilities when determining areas which it will require enhanced mitigation measures for wildfire hazards posed by overhead electrical lines and equipment. This bill also requires the CPUC to define "enhanced mitigation measures" and to describe how the agency incorporated the concerns of local governments and/or fire departments in determining the geographic communities. JUDICIARY

AB-54	Olsen	Disability access: construction-related accessibility claims: demand letters	This bill modifies existing requirements related to the reporting of information about demand letters and complaints regarding construction-related accessibility violations to the California Commission on Disability Access (CCDA). Specifically, this bill requires the information about demand letters and complaints to be submitted in a standard format as specified by the CCDA.	Chapter 872, Statutes of 2016
AB-73	Waldron	Real property: disclosure	This bill specifies that the owner of real property, his or her agent, or the agent of a transferee of real property, is not required to disclose that an occupant of the property being transferred was living with HIV or died from AIDS related complications.	Chapter 548, Statutes of 2016
AB-488	Gonzalez	Employment discrimination	This bill adds a new provision to the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA) to expressly authorize an individual employed under a special license under the Labor Code, as specified, in a nonprofit sheltered workshop, day program, or rehabilitation facility, to bring an action under FEHA for any form or discrimination prohibited under that act. This bill also specifies that, in any such action, the employer has an affirmative defense, as specified, if the challenged activity was permitted by statute or regulation and the challenged activity was necessary to serve employees with disabilities under the specified special license. This bill also provides, however, that nothing under FEHA relating to discrimination on account of disability shall subject an employer to legal liability for obtaining a specified license or paying an individual with a physical or mental disability less than minimum wage pursuant to a specified license from the Industrial Welfare Commission under existing law.	Chapter 683, Statutes of 2016
AB-551	Nazarian	Rental property: bed bugs	This bill requires landlords to provide prospective tenants, on and after July 1, 2017, and to all other tenants by January 1, 2018, specified information about bed bugs and procedures to report suspected bed bug infestations. This bill also prohibits a landlord from renting or leasing a vacant dwelling unit that the landlord knows has a bed bug infestation, as specified, and prohibits a landlord from retaliating against a tenant for reporting a suspected bed bug infestation.	Chapter 559, Statutes of 2016
AB-626	Chiu	Public contracts: claim resolution	This bill establishes, until January 1, 2020, for public works contracts entered into on or after January 1, 2017, a claim resolution procedure by which a general contractor can seek public agency review of the claim.	Chapter 810, Statutes of 2016
AB-691	Calderon	Revised Uniform Fiduciary Access to Digital Assets Act	This bill establishes a modified version of the Revised Uniform Fiduciary Access to Digital Assets Act and establishes procedures for a decedent's	Chapter 551, Statutes of 2016

			personal representative or trustee to obtain digital assets and electronic information from the custodian of those assets and information.
AB-797	Steinorth	Motor vehicles: rescue or provision of care for animal: civil and criminal liability	This bill provides a person civil immunity from any property damage or trespass to a motor vehicle, if the damage was caused while the person was rescuing an animal in accordance with specified law. This bill also provides that such immunity does not affect a person's civil liability or immunity from civil liability for rendering aid to an animal. Additionally, this bill 1) applies existing law responsibilities of peace officers, humane officers, or animal control officers who remove an animal from a vehicle to firefighters or other emergency responders as well; 2) specifies that existing law does not prevent a person from taking reasonable steps that are necessary to remove an animal from a motor vehicle if the person holds a reasonable belief that the animal's safety appears to be in immediate danger, as specified; and 3) provides that such a person is not criminally liable for actions taken reasonably and in good faith, as specified.	Chapter 554, Statutes of 2016
AB-1580	Gatto	Consumer credit reports: security freezes: protected consumer	This bill requires a consumer credit reporting agency to place a security freeze on the credit file of a protected consumer upon the request of, and submission of specified information by, the protected consumer's representative, as specified. This bill defines a protected consumer as any of the following: an individual who is under 16 years of age at the time a request for the placement of a security freeze is made; an incapacitated person or a protected individual for whom a guardian or conservator has been appointed; or a person under the jurisdiction of a county welfare department or county probation department who has been placed in a foster care setting and is under 16 years of age at the time a request for a security freeze is made.	Chapter 494, Statutes of 2016
AB-1682	Mark Stone	Settlement agreements: sexual offenses	This bill prohibits a confidentiality or secrecy provision in a settlement agreement in a civil action for an act of childhood sexual abuse or an act of sexual assault against an elder or dependent adult, as specified, and makes a confidential settlement agreement void as a matter of law and against public policy, and subjects an attorney that fails to comply with the requirements of this bill to discipline by the State Bar of California.	Chapter 876, Statutes of 2016
AB-1684	Mark Stone	Civil actions: human trafficking	This bill provides, independent of any other remedy or procedure that might apply, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) with the authority to receive, investigate, conciliate, mediate, and prosecute human trafficking complaints on behalf of a human trafficking victim, as specified. Requires that damages awarded in any such DFEH action be awarded to the person harmed by the violation of human trafficking, as specified, but costs and attorney's fees awarded in any such action be awarded to the DFEH.	Chapter 63, Statutes of 2016

AB-1687	Calderon	Customer records: age information: commercial online entertainment employment service providers	This bill prohibits a commercial online entertainment employment service provider (service provider) that enters into a contractual agreement to provide employment services to an individual, upon request of the subscriber, from either publishing or making public the subscriber's date of birth or age information in an online profile of the subscriber, or sharing the subscriber's date of birth or age information with any Internet Web sites for the purpose of publication. This bill additionally requires a service provider to remove within five days the subscriber's date of birth and age information in an online profile from public view on any companion Internet Web sites under its control upon request by the subscriber.	Chapter 555, Statutes of 2016
AB-1700	Maienschein	Trusts: Notice of proposed action by trustee	This bill eliminates the statutory provision that prevents a trustee from using a notice of proposed action (an out of court procedure) for a preliminary and final distribution of trust assets, effectively allowing the notice of proposed action to be used for a preliminary and final distribution of trust assets. This bill clarifies that the notice of proposed action process cannot be used by a trustee to discharge himself or herself and avoid any liability related to the discharge.	Chapter 64, Statutes of 2016
AB-1702	Mark Stone	Juveniles: dependent children: reunification services	This bill provides that reunification services need not be provided when the court finds that the parent or guardian knowingly participated in, or permitted, the sexual exploitation of the child, except if the parent or guardian demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she was coerced into permitting, or participating in, the sexual exploitation of the child.	Chapter 124, Statutes of 2016
AB-1709	Gallagher	Deaf or hard-of-hearing individuals	This bill modernizes various codes referencing "deaf or hearing impaired" individuals by replacing existing references to "hearing impaired" with "hard-of-hearing." This bill also makes other technical and nonsubstantive changes to those codes.	Chapter 94, Statutes of 2016
AB-1722	Wagner	Limited liability companies: dissolution: cancellation of articles of organization	This bill inserts a "50 percent or more" standard in place of current law requirements that a "majority" of a limited liability company's voting power, as specified, vote to dissolve or to cancel its articles of organization.	Chapter 66, Statutes of 2016
AB-1723	Dodd	Debt collection	This bill specifies that a debt collector shall initiate its review of an account within 10 business days of receiving certain information that a consumer has become the victim of identity theft and that the debt being collected is not the responsibility of the consumer. This bill requires the debt collector to notify, within 10 business days, any consumer credit reporting agency to which the debt collector furnished adverse information pertaining to a creditor's account that the account is disputed, and requires the debt collector to send notice of its determination to the debtor no later than 10	Chapter 376, Statutes of 2016 business days after concluding the review. This bill also prohibits a creditor from selling the debt to a debt collector if the creditor receives notice that the debtor is a victim of identity theft, as specified.

AB-1735	Waldron	Dissolution of marriage: bifurcated judgment: service	This bill requires, in cases where issues have been bifurcated for separate trial, that service be on the attorney record for represented parties or on the parties themselves if unrepresented. In actions where a pleading has not been filed in the six months after the entry of a bifurcated judgment, this bill requires service to be upon both the party and the attorney of record.	Chapter 67, Statutes of 2016
AB-1750	Dodd	Real property transactions: definitions	This bill clarifies that a seller or broker is not required to provide additional information concerning common environmental hazards that can affect real property to a transferee in connection with the transfer of real property, including transactions for the creation of a leasehold exceeding one year's duration, provided the seller or broker transmits to the transferee a specified consumer information booklet concerning such hazards.	Chapter 125, Statutes of 2016
AB-1779	Gatto	Nonprobate transfers: revocable transfer on death deed	This bill includes additional instructions for the California Law Revision Commission to study whether it is feasible and appropriate to expand the transfer on death deed to include the transfer of stock cooperatives or other common interest developments, and transfers to a trust or other legal entity.	Chapter 179, Statutes of 2016
AB-1825	Gordon	Vicious dogs: definition	This bill deletes from the definition of vicious dog "a dog seized under criminal laws prohibiting dog-fighting whose owner has been convicted of a crime related to dog-fighting."	Chapter 97, Statutes of 2016
AB-1836	Maienschein	Mental health: referral of conservatees	This bill authorizes the probate court, after an evidentiary hearing attended by a probate conservatee and his or her counsel, to refer a conservatee to the county mental health system or for an assessment to determine whether the conservatee has a treatable mental illness, or is gravely disabled and unwilling or unable to accept treatment voluntarily.	Chapter 819, Statutes of 2016
AB-1867	Steinorth	Evidence: judicial notice: official records of conviction	This bill expands, for purposes of judicial notice of criminal conviction records, an existing definition of "electronically digitized copy" to also allow a court to take judicial notice of an electronically digitized copy of the record that does not bear any electronic signature or watermark as is currently required, but that, instead, is a certified copy of an official record of conviction, as specified, that has been transmitted by the clerk of the superior court in a manner showing that the copy was prepared and transmitted by that clerk of the superior court. This bill provides that a seal, signature, or other indicia of the court shall constitute adequate showing.	Chapter 126, Statutes of 2016
AB-1900	Jones-Sawyer	San Pedro superior courthouse	This bill authorizes the Judicial Council to sell the San Pedro superior courthouse, which has not been in use for three years, as specified. This bill also requires that the County of Los Angeles receive the opportunity to	Chapter 510, Statutes of 2016 purchase the property at fair market value before the property is offered to others for purchase. This bill requires the net proceeds from the sale to be deposited into the Immediate and Critical Needs Account of the State Court Facilities Construction Fund.

AB-1963	Calderon	Common interest developments: construction defects	This bill extends, until July 1, 2024, a requirement that a homeowner association in a common interest development of more than 20 units follow a pre-litigation dispute resolution procedure before commencing a design or construction defect action against a builder, developer, or general contractor.	Chapter 71, Statutes of 2016
AB-2051	O'Donnell	Rental passenger vehicles	This bill recasts and reorganizes provisions of existing law governing contracts between rental car companies and their customers in connection with the rental of passenger vehicles. This bill also specifies that a rental company is not prohibited from obtaining, accessing, or using information from electronic surveillance technology for the sole purpose of determining the date and time a vehicle departs from and is returned to the rental company, the total mileage driven, and the fuel level of the returned vehicle.	Chapter 183, Statutes of 2016
AB-2093	Steinorth	Disability access	This bill makes various changes to the law as it pertains to commercial rental agreements and construction-related access violations.	Chapter 379, Statutes of 2016
AB-2119	Chu	Medical information: disclosure: medical examiners and forensic pathologists	This bill authorizes licensed physicians who perform official autopsies on behalf of a county coroner's office or the medical examiner's office to receive medical information for specified purposes. This bill additionally requires a health facility, as defined, a health or behavioral health facility or clinic, and the physician in charge of the patient to release a patient's medical record relating to community mental health services, voluntary admissions and judicial commitments to mental hospitals, and county psychiatric hospitals to a medical examiner, forensic pathologist, or coroner, as specified, upon request, when a patient dies from any cause, natural or otherwise.	Chapter 690, Statutes of 2016
AB-2128	Achadjian	Marriage	This bill provides that the completion of the power of attorney is the sole determinant as to whether the county clerk's office or State Registrar may accept the power of attorney as it relates to marriage.	Chapter 130, Statutes of 2016
AB-2159	Gonzalez	Evidence: immigration status	This bill provides that in a civil action for personal injury or wrongful death, evidence of a person's immigration status shall not be admitted into evidence, nor shall discovery into a person's immigration status be permitted, except as specified. This bill provides that it does not affect the standards of relevance, admissibility, or discovery under existing law, which recognize that such inquiries can be allowed where the person seeking to make the inquiry has shown by clear and convincing evidence that the inquiry is necessary in order to comply with federal immigration law.	Chapter 132, Statutes of 2016
AB-2211	Linder	Registered process servers	This bill makes various clarifying changes to statutes governing the service of	Chapter 102,

AB-2217	Hadley	Notary public: service fees	This bill allows notary publics to charge higher prices for some of their services.	Chapter 133, Statutes of 2016
AB-2244	Gatto	Court fees: electronic filing	This bill ensures that if any trial court permits or mandates electronic filing and service of documents, any fees charged by the court, an electronic filing manager (EFM), or an electronic filing service provider (EFSP) to process a payment for filing fees and other court fees shall not exceed the costs incurred. This bill further ensures that if a trial court mandates e-filing a court or an EFM contracted with a court to provide a system for acceptance of electronically transmitted documents and associated fees accept more than one method of payment to an EFSP, as specified; and clarifies that an EFSP is an agent of the court for the sole purpose of collecting and remitting specified payments and any fees set by an EFSP must, consistent with existing law, be approved by the Judicial Council. This bill also allows for prevailing parties to recover fees associated with electronic filing and service through an EFSP, as specified.	Chapter 461, Statutes of 2016
AB-2258	Eggman	Unclaimed property	This bill provides that specified transactions initiated through an electronic funds transfer that are reflected in the books and records of a banking or financial organization shall constitute account activity for purposes of determining whether property is unclaimed and subject to escheat to the state.	Chapter 463, Statutes of 2016
AB-2263	Baker	Protection of victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and reproductive health care service providers: address confidentiality	This bill standardizes the confidentiality protections for Safe at Home (SAH) program participants, regardless of whether their participation is based on their status as victims of domestic violence, stalking, or sexual assault, or on their status as a patient, employee, or volunteer at a reproductive health care clinic; and requires the Secretary of State to provide SAH enrollees with information about how to protect their privacy on real property records.	Chapter 881, Statutes of 2016
AB-2269	Waldron	Animal shelters: research animals: prohibitions	This bill prohibits a person or animal shelter from euthanizing an animal for the purpose of transferring the carcass to a research facility or animal dealer, prohibits the transferring of live animals to a research facility or animal dealer, as specified, and makes other conforming changes.	Chapter 568, Statutes of 2016
AB-2280	Ridley-Thomas	Rental companies: customer facility charge	This bill establishes a new authority for the Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) to require rental car companies to collect a customer facility charge (CFC) that can be used for specified purposes, including for the design, construction, and improvement of consolidated airport vehicle rental facilities. This bill also authorizes LAX to use CFC revenue to pay or repay bonds, capital contributions, availability payment contracts, lease	Chapter 414, Statutes of 2016 agreements, or other forms of authorized financing used to design, construct, or improve consolidated airport vehicle rental facilities and specified related infrastructure, for a period not to exceed 35 years.

AB-2296	Low	Digital signatures	This bill adds to the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act's (UETA) definition of "electronic signature," that a "digital signature" under the Government Code (which is defined and authorized for use by public entities, at the entity's election) is also a type of electronic signature for purposes of the UETA. This bill makes corresponding changes to the Government Code to reflect that a "digital signature" is a type of "electronic signature" under the UETA. This bill clarifies that the regulations for "digital signatures" apply only to a "digital signature" and not to any other type of "electronic signature" authorized under the UETA. Lastly, this bill specifies nothing in section regarding "digital signatures" limits the right of a public entity or government agency to use and accept an "electronic signature" under the UETA. This bill includes various findings and declarations.	Chapter 144, Statutes of 2016
AB-2349	Chiu	Assisted reproduction agreements for gestational carriers	This bill provides that California has subject matter jurisdiction to determine parentage of a child for a child conceived pursuant to an assisted reproduction agreement for gestational carriers if certain conditions are satisfied, including: 1) the child is born in California; or 2) one or more of the parties to the agreement reside in California or resided in California when the agreement was executed. This bill also makes technical changes to the requirements of an assisted reproduction agreement for gestational carriers.	Chapter 385, Statutes of 2016
AB-2362	Chu	Common interest developments: pesticide application	This bill requires a homeowner association in a common interest development, or its agent, to provide an owner or tenant of a separate interest with advance written notice of the application of pesticides to the separate interest or to a common area when done without a licensed structural pest control operator, as specified.	Chapter 330, Statutes of 2016
AB-2416	Wilk	Escrow agent rating service	This bill extends, until January 1, 2022, a requirement that escrow agent rating services comply with specified portions of the California Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act, as well as specified policies and procedures intended to safeguard from theft or misuse any personally identifiable information such a service obtains from an escrow agent.	Chapter 135, Statutes of 2016
AB-2427	Chau	Civil Procedure: discovery	This bill establishes a new exception to an existing prohibition against the making or disseminating of any postmortem images taken by or for the coroner, by allowing for the use of those postmortem images in a civil action or proceeding that relates to the death of the deceased person, if certain conditions are met. This bill separately requires an expert whose deposition is noticed, as specified, to, no later than three business days before his or her	Chapter 467, Statutes of 2016

			deposition, produce any materials or category of materials, including any electronically stored information (ESI), called for by the deposition notice. This bill also requires deponents who are required to produce ESI, as specified, to provide a means of gaining direct access to, or a translation into a reasonably usable form of, any ESI that is password protected or otherwise inaccessible.
AB-2498	Bonta	Human trafficking	This bill exempts the names, addresses, and images of victims of human trafficking and their immediate family, as specified, from disclosure pursuant to the California Public Records Act. This bill requires law enforcement to orally inform a person who alleges to be the victim of human trafficking of his or her right to have his or her name, addresses, and images, and the names, addresses, and images of his or her immediate family members withheld and kept confidential, and, with regard to calendaring, gives courts the discretion to grant human trafficking actions preference in the order of trial. SB-441	Wolk	California Public Records Act: exemptions	This bill exempts from disclosure under the California Public Records Act any identification number, alphanumeric character, or other unique identifying code used by a public agency to identify a vendor or contractor, as specified.	Chapter 477, Statutes of 2016
SB-775	Allen	Tenancy: rent control: certification	This bill amends the Petris Act to state that its rent level certification provisions would not apply to tenancies commencing on or after January 1, 1999, for which the owner of the property may establish initial rent under the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act.	Chapter 83, Statutes of 2016
SB-807	Gaines	Unmanned aircraft systems	This bill seeks to provide local public entities and public employees of local public entities with immunity from civil liability for any damage to an unmanned aircraft or unmanned aircraft system, if the damage was caused while the local public entity and public employee of the local public entity was providing, and the unmanned aircraft system was interfering with, the operation, support, or enabling of specified emergency services. This bill	Chapter 834, Statutes of 2016 applies the same immunity protection for local public entities and public employees of local public entities, above, to emergency responders who are private entities or paid or unpaid volunteers, if those emergency responders are acting within the scope of authority implicitly or expressly provided by a local public entity or public employee of a local public entity.

SB-873	Beall	Revised Uniform Fiduciary Access to Digital Assets Act	This bill is a companion bill to AB 691 (Calderon, Chapter 551, Statutes of 2016), the Revised Uniform Fiduciary Access to Digital Assets Act (RUFADAA), which establishes a modified version of the RUFADAA and establishes procedures for a decedent's personal representative or trustee to obtain digital assets and electronic information from the custodian of those assets and information. Relevant to this bill, AB 691 provides that a custodian and its officers, employees, and agents are immune from liability for an act or omission done in good faith in compliance with the RUFADAA. This bill limits the immunity provision in AB 691 if that bill is enacted and instead provides that the immunity provision "shall not apply in a case of gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct of the custodian or its officers, employees, or agents." SB-875	Gaines	Solemnization of marriage: county sheriff	This bill expands who may solemnize marriages in California to include county sheriffs.	Chapter 211, Statutes of 2016
SB-918	Vidak	Common interest developments	This bill requires the owner of a separate interest and the homeowner association in a common interest development to annually verify the address or addresses to which notices from the association are to be delivered.	Chapter 780, Statutes of 2016
SB-983	Morrell	Mortgages and deeds of trust	This bill increases the statutory base rate trustees may charge at various stages in the non-judicial foreclosure process, and makes other clarifying and technical changes to existing law.	Chapter 170, Statutes of 2016
SB-997	Lara	Notaries public	This bill allows the identity of the signer of an acknowledgement to be established by a notary public's reasonable reliance on an identification card issued by a federally recognized tribal government.	Chapter 491, Statutes of 2016
SB-1005	Jackson	Marriage	This bill replaces references to a "husband" or "wife" with references to a "spouse," defines "spouse" as including "registered domestic partner," and makes other conforming and related changes.	Chapter 50, Statutes of 2016
SB-1007	Wieckowski	Arbitration: transcription by certified shorthand reporter	This bill establishes the right of a party to an arbitration to have a certified shorthand reporter transcribe any deposition, proceeding, or hearing, at the expense of the party requesting the transcript, except as specified, and provides that the transcript shall be the official record of the deposition, proceeding, or hearing. This bill requires that the party request the court reporter either 1) upon a demand, response, answer, or counterclaim related to the arbitration; or 2) at the time that any a pre-hearing scheduling	Chapter 626, Statutes of 2016 conference at which a deposition, proceeding, or hearing is being calendared, and permits the party to petition the court for an order, as specified to compel the arbitrator to grant the party's request if an arbitrator refuses their request.

SB-1040	Hill	Postadoption instability: unlawful transfer of custody	This bill requires the Department of Social Services to establish a working group to examine the unique challenges facing adoptive families, and makes it unlawful for anyone to solicit custody of a child without pursuing a legal adoption or guardianship, as specified.	Vetoed
SB-1060	Leno	Postadoption contact: siblings of dependent children or wards	This bill requires the county placing agency, to the extent practicable, to convene a meeting with the child, siblings of the child, prospective adoptive parent or parents, and a facilitator for the purpose of deciding whether to voluntarily execute a postadoption sibling contact agreement. This bill provides that the meeting is not required to occur if the court determines by a preponderance of the evidence that a postadoption sibling contact agreement or a meeting for the purpose of deciding whether to voluntarily execute such an agreement is contrary to the safety and well-being of the child and notes the determination in the court order.	Chapter 719, Statutes of 2016
SB-1065	Monning	Dismissal or denial of petitions to compel arbitration: appeals: Elder and Dependent Adult Civil Protection Act	This bill generally provides that in an appeal from an order dismissing or denying a petition to compel arbitration, the court of appeal must issue its decision within 100 days after the notice of appeal is filed if the appeal involves a claim under the Elder and Dependent Adult Civil Protection Act and a party has been granted a trial preference, as specified. This bill also provides an exception allowing the court to grant an extension of time, only if good cause is shown and the extension will promote the interests of justice.	Chapter 628, Statutes of 2016
SB-1078	Jackson	Civil procedure: arbitration	This bill generally prohibits an arbitrator, in consumer arbitrations, from entertaining or accepting, from the time of appointment until the conclusion of the arbitration any offers of employment as a dispute resolution neutral in another case involving a party or lawyer for a party in the pending arbitration without the prior written consent of the parties, as specified. This bill also adds specified prohibitions and disclosure requirements relating to certain solicitations made by, or at the direction of, a private arbitration company to a party or a lawyer for a party in a pending arbitration.	Vetoed
SB-1092	Monning	Advertising: Internet private residence rental listings: notice	This bill requires residential hosting platforms to provide a notice warning individuals to review any restrictions on coverage under their homeowners' or renters' insurance policy related to short-term rental activities to ensure that there is appropriate insurance coverage in the event of a loss arising out of those activities.	Chapter 113, Statutes of 2016
SB-1130	Wieckowski	False advertising:	This bill adds county counsels to the list of public prosecutors authorized to	Chapter 38, substantiation of claims: county counsel	require persons who make advertising claims that purport to be based on factual, objective, or clinical evidence, that compare a product's effectiveness or safety to that of other brands or products, or that purport to be based on any fact, to substantiate their claims. This bill extends to county counsels the authority to seek immediate termination or modification of unsubstantiated advertising claims, or to disseminate information concerning the veracity of such claims.	Statutes of 2016

SB-1171	Judiciary	Maintenance of the codes	This bill makes numerous technical changes in the California codes that have been recommended by the Office of Legislative Counsel. The proposed changes do not make any substantive change in the law.	Chapter 86, Statutes of 2016
SB-1179	Vidak	Public cemetery districts: interment rights	This bill establishes an interment right as a transferable property interest, requires the interment right owner to designate a successor, and, in the event a successor owner has not been otherwise named, establishes a procedure for the succession of an interment right in public cemetery districts. This bill provides immunity from liability to a district or district employee or trustee for claims, losses, or damages resulting from transferring an interment right, as specified, and provides the circumstances and process under which human remains may be disinterred, reinterred, or removed from a public cemetery district after interment, and specifies the records required to be maintained by the public cemetery district and the person removing and relocating the human remains.	Chapter 592, Statutes of 2016
SB-1229	Jackson	Home-generated pharmaceutical waste: secure drug take-back bins	This bill provides certain collectors that are authorized under federal law to engage in drug take-back collection with limited protection from civil and criminal liability (or "qualified immunity") for any injury or harm that results from a collector maintaining a secure drug take-back bin on its premises, provided that the collector, not for compensation, acts in good faith to take specified steps to ensure the health and safety of consumers and employees and the proper disposal of the home-generated pharmaceutical waste contained in the secure drug take-back bin. Specifies that this qualified immunity shall not apply in the case of personal injury or wrongful death which results from the collector's gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct in maintaining a secure drug take-back bin.	Chapter 238, Statutes of 2016
SB-1241	Wieckowski	Employment contracts: adjudication: choice of law and forum	This bill prohibits employers, in contracts entered into, modified, or extended on or after January 1, 2017, from requiring an employee who resides and works in California, as a condition of employment, to agree to a provision that either: 1) requires the employee to adjudicate outside of California a claim arising in California; or 2) deprives the employee of the substantive protection of California law with respect to a controversy arising in California.	Chapter 632, Statutes of 2016

			This bill provides that such a provision is voidable by the employee. If such a provision is rendered void at the employee's request, then the matter must be adjudicated (meaning litigated or arbitrated) in California and California law shall govern the dispute. This bill provides a specified exception to these provisions for any employee who is in fact individually represented by legal counsel in negotiating the terms of an agreement and otherwise authorizes a court to award a plaintiff enforcing his or her rights under this bill attorney's fees, as specified.
SB-1255	Moorlach	Dissolution of marriage: date of separation	This bill defines "date of separation" for purposes of the Family Code as the date that a complete and final break in the marital relationship has occurred, as evidenced by a spouse's expression of his or her intent to end the marriage and conduct that is consistent with that intent, and updates the Family Code to reflect this definition.	Chapter 114, Statutes of 2016
SB-1257	Block	State Bar: admission: license: pro bono service requirement	This bill requires, to achieve greater access to justice for indigent unrepresented Californians, that those who apply to become licensed California attorneys, with certain exceptions, complete at least 50 hours of pro bono legal service, as defined, prior to admission with the State Bar of California.	Vetoed
SB-1265	Moorlach	Marital deduction trusts	This bill updates provisions relating to marital deduction trusts for cross-references to applicable federal laws relating to qualified terminable interest property and provide for a unitrust payment or other allocation of income determined pursuant to a reasonable apportionment of total investment return, as specified.	Chapter 140, Statutes of 2016
SB-1281	Block	Law schools: unaccredited law school disclosures	This bill requires, to ensure that prospective law students can make informed decisions about which law schools to attend, that law schools not accredited by the American Bar Association post information on their Internet Web sites, including bar passage data, tuition, fees, financial aid, employment outcomes for graduates, conditional scholarships, enrollment data, faculty information, average class size for required courses, and the number of clinical offerings.	Chapter 87, Statutes of 2016
SB-1284	Hernandez	Human remains: conservator of the person or estate	This bill provides that the right and duty to control the disposition of the remains of a decedent passes successively to the conservator of the person and conservator of the estate if a person in a higher order of succession fails to act or cannot be found.	Chapter 39, Statutes of 2016
SB-1289	Lara	Law enforcement: immigration	This bill prohibits local law enforcement agencies and local governments from contracting with for-profit entities to detain immigrants on behalf of federal immigration authorities. This bill requires that immigrant detention facilities adhere to national immigration standards for the detention of immigrants. This bill further requires that immigrants in detention be provided other legal	Vetoed rights, as specified. This bill authorizes the Attorney General, district attorneys, and city attorneys to bring suits against detention facilities for violations of the national detention standards or violations of other legal rights created by this bill.

SB-1342	Mendoza	Wages: investigations: subpoenas	This bill specifies that a legislative body of a city or county is authorized to delegate that body's authority to issue subpoenas and to report noncompliance thereof to the judge of the superior court of the county, to a county or city official or department head in order to enforce any local law or ordinance, including local wage laws. This bill provides legislative findings in support of this provision.	Chapter 115, Statutes of 2016
SB-1406	Mendoza	Construction-related accessibility: education entities	This bill requires an attorney who provides a prelitigation letter or sends or serves a complaint alleging a construction-related accessibility claim, as defined, against an education entity, as defined, to send a copy of the prelitigation letter or complaint to the California Commission on Disability Access (CCDA) within five business days, and requires the attorney to additionally submit information about the complaint, and further requires the attorney to submit the notification of judgment, settlement, or dismissal to the CCDA. This bill subjects an attorney who fails to comply with these requirements to discipline.	Chapter 892, Statutes of 2016
SB-1431	Morrell	Service of summons or subpoena	This bill allows investigators employed by an office of a district attorney or public defender to gain access to gated communities for a reasonable amount of time for the sole purpose of performing lawful service of process or service of subpoena upon displaying a current driver's license or other identification, and a badge or other confirmation that the individual is acting in his or her capacity as an investigator employed by an office of the attorney general, a county counsel, a city attorney, a district attorney or a public defender. VETERANS AFFAIRS

AB-2085	Irwin	Military and veterans: legal aid	This bill creates the Office of Military Legal Assistance within the California Military Department and requires it to serve as a clearinghouse for the coordination of attorneys offering pro bono legal services to military service members needing legal representation.	Vetoed
AB-2254	Achadjian	Armories: homeless shelter	This bill revises the list of armories to be made available to include the Atascadero armory in San Luis Obispo County.	Chapter 462, Statutes of 2016
AB-2273	Irwin	Military law: suicide	This bill prohibits a member of the active militia, including the California National Guard, from being prosecuted for a military crime, under state authority, based on an attempt to kill him or herself.	Chapter 328, Statutes of 2016
AB-2562	Veterans Affairs	Military service: benefits	This bill deletes references to specific dates on which a military servicemember was deployed on active duty. (These dates determine, in part, the servicemember's eligibility for existing financial and legal protections provided during the time period of the deployment.)	Chapter 332, Statutes of 2016
AB-2563	Veterans Affairs	Veterans: service advocate: correctional facilities	This bill revises the definition of "veteran" – as used in Section 2695.5 of the Penal Code – by deleting the reference to the American Red Cross and including a person who has been discharged from the National Guard of any state.	Chapter 203, Statutes of 2016
AJR-20	Kim	Veterans Affairs hospitals	This resolution urges the Congress of the United States to support and build a central federal veterans hospital in Orange County to meet the mental health care needs of area veterans.	Resolution Chapter 92, Statutes of 2016
AJR-33	Bonilla	Port Chicago disaster: African American Sailors of the United States Navy	This resolution urges the Congress of the United States to publicly exonerate the 50 African American sailors of the United States Navy, who were inappropriately tried for and convicted of mutiny in connection with the Port Chicago Naval Magazine incident (July 1944), and to retroactively convert the general discharge granted to each of those sailors to an honorable discharge.	Resolution Chapter 93, Statutes of 2016
AJR-37	Bonta	Filipino veterans	This resolution requests that the Congress of the United States pass specified federal legislation pertaining to Filipino veterans of World War II in recognition of their loyal and selfless duty to the Philippines and to the United States.	Resolution Chapter 114, Statutes of 2016
SB-543	Wolk	Veterans: Veterans' Home of California	This bill creates a centralized, state-level Morale, Welfare, and Recreation Fund (MWR Fund) for the Veterans Home of California system of state veterans homes. This bill consolidates within this MWR Fund all existing and future MWR moneys generated by individual homes, and establishes procedures for and places restrictions on the budgeting and expenditure of moneys in the MWR Fund.	Chapter 424, Statutes of 2016
SB-866	Roth	Veterans housing	This bill authorizes a housing developer or service provider, which provides	Chapter 535, housing or services under the Veterans Housing and Homeless Prevention Bond Act of 2014, to provide housing or services to veterans and their children in women-only facilities in limited instances, as specified.	Statutes of 2016

SB-1180	Jackson	Public school employees: military veterans: leave of absence for illness or injury	This bill provides school employees, who are military veterans with service-connected disabilities, with additional paid leaves of absence for illness or injury, for the purpose of undergoing medical treatment for those disabilities during their first year of employment.	Chapter 728, Statutes of 2016
SB-1458	Bates	Property taxation: exemptions: disabled veterans	This bill expands eligibility for the Disabled Veteran's Property Tax Exemption to include a person who has been discharged under the "other than dishonorable conditions" – but who is otherwise eligible for federal veterans' health and medical benefits, as determined by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs. This bill also contains technical provisions that allow county assessors to process assessment roll corrections beyond four years related to the Disabled Veteran's Property Tax Exemption.
